

Father Dan in Monte-Carlo

Father

Dan Langdon-Griffiths returns to Saint Paul's during the week from May 1st to provide locum coverage for Father Walter who is taking a short holiday with his sister visiting from California. Father Dan is pictured here on his ordination day with his great friend, Dave Corns, the Head Verger at Liverpool Cathedral, one of the largest cathedral in the Anglican world, where Father Dan's ordination took place.

Dave will join Father Dan for the first few days of his visit.

Father Walter celebrates 25 years

Father

Walter was pleased to welcome his sister Barbara (second, left) for the celebration of his 25th anniversary of ordination on Sunday, 30th April 2017.

Champagne flowed and Easter cake was served after the 10:30 Sunday service to mark this special occasion.

Christening: Rossi Grandchildren

Ryan Di Giacomo was very happy to watch on as his baby twin sisters, Chloe & Victoria, and his older cousins Sienna & Leandro Rossi we welcomed into the household of faith through the sacrament of Holy Baptism.

The Christening took place on Sunday, 23 April with the Rossi family and many friends joining the Saint Paul's Sunday congregation for this very special celebration
