

Father Dan

Father Dan to be Next Chaplain of Midi-Pyrénées and Aude.

Father Dan has been with us at St Paul's on a locum basis to support us through our interregnum, whilst the search for the next chaplain continues.

a news announcement at the end of September 2017 that Father Dan will be moving west after Christmas to become the Chaplain for the Midi-Pyrénées and Aude Church of England Chaplaincy.

Bishop Robert is due to License Dan into this new ministry on the 3rd of Feb 2018.

Details of when Dan will leave Monaco will be advised

Dan's new patch is slightly larger than Monaco, Based near Toulouse, Dan will have 7 church communities in his care, and will be supported in his work by an excellent Assistant Chaplain and by many other dedicated lay and ordained people